JOURNAL

SECRET

25X1

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 22 March 1962

pleased to be present for a kris committee at ten o'clock on Sat the Chairman wished govered a	Telephoned Representative he Director would, of course, be fing of the House Appropriations Suburday. I inquired as to what subjects a we could prepare carselves. Mr. go into the budget and would not him for this information.
stating they had received a quer	Certis called from State Department y from Representative William C.
strengthening of airways. I sug that the Department indicate the	It column which indicated that U-2s scured pictures of missile bases and gested to Curtis that he might suggest the Government generally has no
As to whether or a	oissile bases in Cuba ot the U-2 has been flying, the answe amont. Curtis thought he could hand

SECRET

Gaucher, in the office of Representative Philip J. Philbin (D., Mass.), concerning grades and qualifications for employment of clerical and "analyst" personnel. Mr. Gaucher also requested that when in the building on other business. I stop by to see the Congressman. He indicated Mr. Philbin did not want a special trip and did not desire to set a firm appointment. After checking with Personnel, advised Mr. Gauche pamphlets "Employment Opportunities in the Central Intelligence Agency and "Employment Opportunities in the Central Intelligence Agency for Typists, Stanographers and Secretaries," and ten sets of employment applications which were mailed to Mr. Gaucher. Mr. Gaucher indicated that he would transmit the information to Mr. Philbin who already shad returned to Worcester for the weekend and indicated again that it would be appreciated if I would stop by whenev convenient even though the foregoing had filled the Congressman's reque for information. 7. Checked again with Alan Reed, in the Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H. R. 75 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again sindicated that the Burhad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 8. Mr. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Roger Hilsman's office on the subject or research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had	ther, in the office of Represent	ceived a request from Mr. Clifford
Mar. Gaucher also requested that when in the building on other business. I stop by to see the Congressman. He indicated Mr. Philbin did not want a special trip and did not desire to set a firm appointment. After checking with Personnel, advised Mr. Gauch Ries checking with Personnel, advised Mr. Gauch also forwarded copies of the Agency pamphlets "Employment Opportunities in the Central Intelligence Agency and Employment Opportunities in the Central Intelligence Agency for Typists, Stenographers and Secretaries," and ten sets of employment applications which were mailed to Mr. Gaucher. Mr. Gaucher indicated that he would transmit the information to Mr. Philbin who already had returned to Worcester for the weekend and indicated again that it would be appreciated if I would stop by whenev convenient even though the foregoing had filled the Congressman's reque for information. T. Checked again with Alan Reed, in the Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H. R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again indicated that the Bur had no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any centemplated committee action on it. 8. Air. Stigers, State Department, called research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had		ative Philip J. Philbin (D., Mass.).
Mr. Gaucher also requested that when in the building on other business. I stop by to see the Congressman. He indicated Mr. Philbin did not want a special trip and did not desire to set a firm appointment. After checking with Personnel, advised Mr. Gauch Personnel, advised Mr. Gauch also forwarded copies of the Agency pamphlets "Employment Opportunities in the Central Intelligence Agency and "Employment Opportunities in the Central Intelligence Agency for Typists, Stenographers and Secretaries," and ten sets of employment applications which were mailed to Mr. Gaucher. Mr. Gaucher indicated that he would transmit the information to Mr. Philbin who already had returned to Worcester for the weekend and indicated again that it would be appreciated if I would stop by whenever convenient even though the foregoing had filled the Congressman's requester information. 7. Checked again with Alan Reed, in the Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H.R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency hill. Reed again indicated that the Burhad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 8. htr. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Roger Hilsman's office on the subject of research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had		s for employment of clerical and
After checking with Personnel, advised Mr. Gauch After checking with Personnel, advised Mr. Gauch After checking with Personnel, advised Mr. Gauch Also forwarded copies of the Agency pamphlets "Employment Opportunities in the Central Intelligence Agency and "Employment Opportunities in the Central Intelligence Agency for Typists, Stenographers and Secretaries," and ten sets of employment applications which were mailed to Mr. Gaucher. Air. Gaucher indicated that he would transmit the information to Mr. Philbin who already had returned to Worceater for the weekend and indicated again that it would be appreciated if I would stop by whenev convenient even though the foregoing had filled the Congressman's reque for information. 7. Checked again with Alan Reed, in the Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H.R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again indicated that the Bur had no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any centemplated committee action on it. 8. Air. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Reger Hilsman's office on the subject or research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had		ted that when in the building on other also forwarded copies of the Agency pamphlets "Employment Opportunities in the Central Intelligence Agency and "Employment Opportunities in the Central Intelligence Agency for Typists, Stenographers and Secretaries," and ten sets of employment applications which were mailed to Mr. Gaucher. Air. Gaucher indicated that he would transmit the information to Mr. Philbin who already had returned to Worcester for the weekend and indicated again that it would be appreciated if I would stop by whenev convenient even though the foregoing had filled the Congressman's reque for information. Checked again with Alan Reed, in the Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H.R. 75 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again sindicated that the Burhad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any centemplated committee action on it. Air. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Roger Hilsman's office on the subject or research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had pamphlets "Employment Opportunities in the Central Intelligence Agency and Employment Opportunities in the Central Intelligence Agency for Typists, Stenographers and Secretaries," and ten sets of employment applications which were mailed to Mr. Gaucher. Mr. Gaucher indicated that he would transmit the information to Mr. Philbin who already had returned to Worcester for the weekend and indicated again that it would be appreciated if I would stop by wheneven convenient even though the foregoing had filled the Congressman's reque for information. Checked again with Alan Reed, in the Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H. R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again indicated that the Bureau of any contemplated committee action on it. Air. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Roger Hilsman's office on the subject or research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had		Personnel, advised Mr. Gaucher pamphlets "Employment Opportunities in the Central Intelligence Agency and Employment Opportunities in the Central Intelligence Agency for Typists, Stenographers and Secretaries," and ten sets of employment applications which were mailed to Mr. Gaucher. Mr. Gaucher indicated that he would transmit the information to Mr. Philbin who already had returned to Worcester for the weekend and indicated again that it would be appreciated if I would stop by wheneven convenient even though the foregoing had filled the Congressman's reque for information. Checked again with Alan Reed, in the Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H. R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again indicated that the Bureau of any contemplated committee action on it. Air. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Roger Hilsman's office on the subject or research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had	*
Typists, Stenographers and Secretaries," and ten sets of employment applications which were mailed to Mr. Gaucher. Mr. Gaucher indicated that he would transmit the information to Mr. Philbin who already had returned to Worcester for the weekend and indicated again that it would be appreciated if I would stop by whenev convenient even though the foregoing had filled the Congressman's reque for information. 7. Checked again with Alan Reed, in the Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H. R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again sindicated that the Burhad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any centemplated committee action on it. 8. Mr. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Reger Hilsman's office on the subject of research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had	.	so forwarded copies of the Agency
Typists, Stenographers and Secretaries," and ten sets of employment applications which were mailed to Mr. Gaucher. Mr. Gaucher indicated that he would transmit the information to hir. Philbin who already had returned to Worcester for the weekend and indicated again that it would be appreciated if I would stop by wheneve convenient even though the foregoing had filled the Congressman's reque for information. Checked again with Alan Reed, in the Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H. R. 75 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again indicated that the Burhad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 8 Mr. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Roger Hilsman's office on the subject of research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had	phiets "Employment Opportuni	ties in the Central Intelligence Agency"
Ar. Gaucher indicated that he would transmit the information to Mr. Philbin who already had returned to Worcester for the weekend and indicated again that it would be appreciated if I would stop by whenever convenient even though the foregoing had filled the Congressman's requester information. Checked again with Alan Reed, in the Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H.R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again indicated that the Burhad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 3 Mr. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Roger Hilsman's office on the subject of research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had
Mr. Gaucher indicated that he would transmit the information to Mr. Philbin who already had returned to Worcester for the weekend and indicated again that it would be appreciated if I would stop by wheney convenient even though the foregoing had filled the Congressman's reque for information. 7. Checked again with Alan Reed, in the Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H. R. 75 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again windicated that the Burhad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 8. hir. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Reger Hilsman's office on the subject of research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had
hir. Philbin who already had returned to Worcester for the weekend and indicated again that it would be appreciated if I would stop by wheney convenient even though the foregoing had filled the Congressman's reque for information. T Checked again with Alan Reed, in the Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H.R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again indicated that the Burhad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 8 Mr. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Reger Hilsman's office on the subject of research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had and indicated again that it would be appreciated if I would stop by wheney convenient even though the foregoing had filled the Congressman's reque for information. 7. Checked again with Alan Reed, in the Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H.R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again indicated that the Burhad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 8. Mr. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Reger Hilsman's office on the subject of research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had	Philbin who already had retui	ned to Worcester for the weekend
7. Checked again with Alan Reed, in the Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H. R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again indicated that the Burbad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 8. Air. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Reger Hilsman's office on the subject of research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had	indicated again that it would be	appreciated if I would stop by whenever
7. Checked again with Alan Reed, in the Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H. R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again sindicated that the Burhad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 8. Air. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Roger Hilsman's office on the subject of research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had		g had filled the Congressman's request
Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H.R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again indicated that the Burbad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 8.	information.
Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H.R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again indicated that the Burbad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 8.		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H.R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again indicated that the Burbad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 8.
Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H.R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again indicated that the Burbad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 8. Air. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Roger Hilsman's office on the subject of research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H.R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again indicated that the Burbad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 8.
Bureau of the Budget, on any new developments with respect to H.R. 78 the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again indicated that the Burbad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 8.
the Finkerton Detective Agency bill. Reed again indicated that the Burbad no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 8. Mr. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Roger Hilsman's office on the subject of research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had had no new reports from Executive agencies on this bill and was not awa of any contemplated committee action on it. 8. Mr. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Roger Hilsman's office on the subject of research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had
and indicated that the meeting in Roger Hilsman's office on the subject of research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had	ean of the Budget, on any new d	evelopments with respect to H.R. 7865.
8. Mr. Stigers, State Department, called and indicated that the meeting in Roger Hilsman's office on the subject of research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had	eau of the Budget, on any new d Finkerton Detective Agency bill	evelopments with respect to H.R. 7865. . Reed again indicated that the Bureau
and indicated that the meeting in Roger Hilsman's office on the subject of research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had	eau of the Budget, on any new d Finkerton Detective Agency bill no new reports from Executive	evelopments with respect to H.R. 7865. Reed again sindicated that the Bureau agencies on this bill and was not aware research and development contracts pertaining to Communist China had	eau of the Budget, on any new d Finkerton Detective Agency bill no new reports from Executive	evelopments with respect to H.R. 7865. Reed again sindicated that the Bureau agencies on this bill and was not aware eau of the Budget, on any new different Detective Agency bill no new reports from Executive ay contemplated committee act	evelopments with respect to H.R. 7865. Reed again indicated that the Bureau agencies on this bill and was not aware on on it. r. Stigers, State Department, called eau of the Budget, on any new different Detective Agency bill no new reports from Executive my contemplated committee actions. 8	evelopments with respect to H.R. 7865. Reed again indicated that the Bureau agencies on this bill and was not aware ion on it. T. Stigers, State Department, called oger Hilsman's office on the subject of
been postponed since the Department of Defense needed more time to	eau of the Budget, on any new definition Detective Agency bill no new reports from Executive my contemplated committee actions. 8	evelopments with respect to H.R. 7865. Reed again indicated that the Bureau agencies on this bill and was not aware ion on it. r. Stigers, State Department, called oger Hilsman's office on the subject of a pertaining to Communist China had collect information on the subject. Stigers is to send we lists which the State Department has collected of studies in progress or completed on the	eau of the Budget, on any new definition Detective Agency bill no new reports from Executive my contemplated committee actions are detected that the meeting in Research and development contracts a postponed since the Department	evelopments with respect to H.R. 7865. Reed again indicated that the Bureau agencies on this bill and was not aware ion on it. T. Stigers, State Department, called oger Hilsman's office on the subject of a pertaining to Communist China had at of Defence needed more time to